Not sure what happened to the last one or what's going on with the whole copyright claim thing. But I'm more just wondering if anyone has the list of what Reddblush packs are missing, I'm willing to buy some of them but I don't know which are missing.

You could have at least posted all the relevant links in the OP-post. These two:

<https://adf.neocities.org/> -- drives catalogue

<https://yupdates.neocities.org/> -- drives updates log

There also should have been a discord link, but oh well.

Thank you, I've added it to the drive.

Changes should already be reflected on the yupdates site.

As for the still missing ones, I believe these are:

-August 2017 Pack 1

-August 2017 Pack 2

-September 2017 Pack 1

-October 2017 Pack 1

Hi there, owner of adf.neocities.org and the Discord server here. About 24 hours ago, I received a message from Discord saying my account had been disabled.

They've been very vague, simply stating the violation of their Terms of Service and Community Guidelines as a reason.

I've reached out to their customer support, but so far have not gotten any reply. I assume what happened was after the Hydaria folder on Google Drive got taken down and I reuploaded it to multiple other sites, he wasn't able to remove the file from all of them and as a result simply reported the entire server/my profile to Discord.

That's just an assumption though, it might as well have been me using BetterDiscord or a selfbot a while back, who knows. And then there's the whole thing about people getting mass-reported for being underage, even though they aren't, and their accounts being deactivated by Discord without any further investigation.

Though I noticed that another server I was an administrator of still exists, so for now I'm going with the first theory. I've put up a notice on adf.neocities.org, including a link to a backup of the entire server that either oxi98144 or DADESUPER sent to me a few days ago; can't quite remember (thanks). I'll also be joining the server mentioned in >>2602712, but I won't open another server until I know what's going on; don't want to risk another server being deleted.

1. Download and install Node.js from <https://nodejs.org/en/download/>
2. Open a new command window (press Ctrl+R, type 'cmd' and hit return)
3. Run 'cd ', followed by the path of the .js file (e.g. C:\Users\Username\Downloads)
4. Run 'npm install chalk sync-request cheerio readline-sync cookiefile'
5. Run 'node "HicceArs Downloader v1.1.js"' (including the inner quotes)

Granted, I should probably add instructions to the page or generate some executables.

It's so good to see artists that knows when to stop to just improve their art, Redd could simply give us more and more of the same (no shade intended but everyone knows what type of artists I'm talking about lol), but no, he/she is seeking for more to improve their art and quality... That's really admirable!

Yes, people beg for free content and will always do so. Some of them, to your surprise, even support other artists financially. So bad most people can only afford 10 to 50 USD to spend on porn, and this money is going to creators they personally like most, and those whom less people pledge.

The only way to get all you want is to beg, and share what you have in exchange for what you do not.

To the lovely people running the Drive Artist Folder II Discord:

You are really foolish to think a simple ban based on IP is enough to get rid of the problem. Sadly for you, I'm well aware of how Discord works. Doesn't matter if you ban this one as well, desu, it is expected. We already have the information we needed (ie, if you enable developer mode on Discord you can copy the IDs of things; messages, users, server, images, etc.) as well as taken pictures of messages. So even if you change your name, it wont matter, we can still track it. Discord is anonymous, but not completely.

Secondly, you assumed I was an attorney, well I'm not never said I was. Its illegal to misrepresent. However, its easy to read laws if you graduated high school; though I see most of you think with your dicks than your mind. Your server is in violation of the DMCA of 1998 and legal code 17 U.S.C. §§ 512(c)(3)(A), 1201(a)(1)(A)(C), 1201(b)(2)(A)(B), 1204(a)(1)(2). Up to you if you want to be further complicit upon notification of illegally distributing content. Discord is based on the USA and as such, they have to comply with the laws in the country.

For those of you that think having a copy of the image gives you right to post it online, well, might wanna read a little on it.
<<https://www.law.cornell.edu/uscode/text/17/202>>; .

Ownership of a movie doesn't give you the right to distribute it. If it isn't clear cut, you are pirating the pictures.

Don't attempt to use the idea of "its not your character so you hold no rights", its parody. And I don't see these companies going into the pornography market anytime soon, so it's not violating trademark either.

Blizzard tried already, they could only takedown the films that had assets ripped from the game directly. None of the drawn stuff was taken down. So I hope you get the picture.

Also, I'm not sure who runs the Neocities site, but you really should've not taken that decision. You are aware that the site is hosted on the USA, right? Portland, Oregon to be specific.

A simple subpoena from a Oregon judge can get us your information in the site; same idea with an ISP. Basics of getting away with stuff like this is to not leave a trace. At that point we will leave that pursue to the Federal Bureau of Investigation/FBI. And you saved us the hassle of calculating the traffic of exposure which is proportional to economical damages.

And don't bother taking it down or do, doesn't really matter. We already have a copy of the cache of the website.

I'll be strategizing more with artists I've reached out to. Big and small.

We really don't mind if you share your art with acquaintances or friends, same to when you share a movie or song, but posting it on a public front is another thing, you are disregarding our decisions.

We are aware many of you can't afford pledging/subscribing, we are taking leeway on plans to provide for those. But leakers really make us question if we should and aren't aiding to the argument.

Unlike you people, some others do approach us for solutions on this, so we began looking into it. Im looking at those that keep saying porn should be free, but again we need to pay for the rent, the water bill, the gas bill, the electric bill and internet.

You can also very simply draw it yourself! Learn some art and get working! No need to commission us or pay us. Art is not a talent but a skill.

We already contacted Discord for a proper action or a referendum on what action they would take. We are awaiting a response at this moment.

Go ahead and ban, though by Discord's EULA and ToS, you aren't protected from doing illicit actions on the platform.

Au revoir~

P.S. We do want to do art releases over time, you apparently already took it upon yourselves to take the decision without our questioning so don't think you are on the moral high ground, but it takes time and money. Not all artists know how to setup a website, so don't be generalizing when one thing works, it will work for others, angel.

P.S.S. Go ahead and make more accounts it doesn't matter. We are after the server and accounts today. Leaked art is leaked art, but we won't tolerate willful spreading.

You're all hopeless. The entire music and film industry COMBINED weren't able to stop piracy. Do you seriously think a few artist making less than 100k a year combined will manage to do so?

I have good news and bad news for you:

Good news, you definitely don't lack self esteem

Bad news: you're not gonna win. This battle has been fought thousands of times by people that had far far more money than you. They lost, you will lose too, throw as much of a tantrum as you want. Nice to see someone can talk without insulting. Maybe there are adults in the internet after all.

Well for the moment, you arent wrong. Piracy goes too deep for us to tackle it at the moment. But we are definitely waiting for a chance to get standing power.

We are looking for solutions on how to allow artists to make money and enjoy doing what they make.

I will agree, I wish Patreon hadn't turned into what it is today, its gone the business route but since people didn't support back then, well it was only doomed to happen.

I reiterate for you all to go and read up on the Blizzard case to take down porn. Copyright only works to a certain extent. And also parody law.

Seems again you all keep thinking Im a lawyer, Im not, never said I was.

And at the end of the day we are gonna hunt down those that organize for piracy, it is just blatantly wrong. So if you put your hand out there, we will chop it. Plain and simple.

And you will keep waiting forever, so you'd better get used to it instead of throwing a tantrum >we are gonna hunt down those that organize for piracy, it is just blatantly wrong.

>it is just blatantly wrong.

You keep confusing morals with laws. you believe morally it's wrong, i believe it's right, it's pointless to argue about that.

>So if you put your hand out there, we will chop it. Plain and simple.

Except it isn't a human hand you'll be chopping, you'll be chopping the hand of an hydra. Cut 1 and 2 grow in its place. This is the internet, it has been built by the US government specifically with the intent of making things impossible to take down. (it was the cold war after all, they couldn't make it so taking down 1 base would disconnect all others). You won't win this way, if you don't want piracy don't advertise it, all ads are good ads and by replying to this thread you're only pushing it up, meaning more people will see it, meaning more people will download your shit for free. STOP ARGUING. GO AWAY. SHUT UP. that's the only way you can curb piracy. IGNORE IT. don't cause a Streisand effect. You will not win, not now nor never. Besides you keep assuming we're all bound by us copyright laws, which we are not. I am not a US citizen and my country has ruled multiple times that piracy in of itself is not illegal unless you make money off it. I am not making any money, so even if this went to court, which it won't, you would get nothing out of it. All you're doing by throwing a tantrum is making people want to leak your shit to make you rage even more. People love doing that, and you should know if you've been on the internet for longer than 5 minutes.

This will be my last reply, take my advice or ignore it, it doesn't affect me in the slightest, the only one you're harming by throwing a tantrum is yourself. If you want more people to download your shit go ahead and cry some more.

When you buy a movie you don't buy the movie, there is a clear warning that you're buying a permanent license to privately view said movie and not the movie itself (and even then sharing the movie with friends has usually resulted in the case being ruled in favor of the buyer, not the company). When you buy art on patreon such warning does not appear, so you are buying the art. Not a license to view the art. If you wanna act like you're a master of law please read your laws. You haven't stated we're buying a license and not the art, so you have sold the art, which we now legally have every right to view, modify, show publicly, copy, distribute etc.

Anonymous Mon 20 May 2019 08:39:46 No.2629894 Report

Fun fact: my country has rules that for an image to be copyrighted it has to include the name of the artist and the date (just the year is fine) so if your pictures do not contain that information and we went to court they wouldn't even be considered under copyright, but would be considered public domain. Which, again you have every right to copy, share, modify and even profit off since they are public domain

Guy who owns the drive here. I only pledged for one month and posted a link for everything I got during the time I pledged of current and past rewards.

It wasn't really meant to be a proper artist drive used like this. Rather why it never got updated and never will be updated. If anyone else actually has any more from him and wants to make a better and proper drive to replace it, go for it.
